The Board of Directors dedicates Camp Lu-Jo KISMIF to the training of young people—spiritually, mentally, socially, and physically—in the example of Luke 2:52, “And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.” Camp Lu-Jo KISMIF strives to attract young people who desire an environment of proper dress and Christian behavior. The camp was founded to serve the purpose of cultivating spirituality, decency, and Christian character.

Brief Camp History

Lucille (Jones) Aubrey made the camp grounds available in 1960. Her liberal gift was accepted by the original Board of Directors composed of Lawrence Giles, Harold McRay, Bill Reed, Clyde Sloan, and Robert Sprague in March 1961. The first camp session was held in June 1962. Camp Lu-Jo KISMIF celebrates 46 years of Christian camping in 2007. The youth camp is operated by Camp Lu-Jo KISMIF, Inc. This non-profit corporation is governed by a board of directors made up of Christian men and women.

Lu-Jo comes from the name: Lucille Jones.

KISMIF represents the camp motto: Keep it spiritual, make it fun.
